The Crystal Palace has undergone the most extensive alterations and improvements, and is now in a more perfect condition than ever before, and is destined for every quarter of the world.

THE MACHINERY DEPARTMENT.—is very complete.

THE PICTURE GALLERY.—is the most comprehensive and valuable collection of the New-York Museum.

Mr. Carey has clearly substantiated his claim to be the leading authority on the great subject.

A section of the GREAT CRATE TREE from California is contributed by Mr. Carey.

This is a massive tree, up to man's height, with a trunk 9 feet in circumference, and a height of 100 feet. Prof. Benj. Peirce of Harvard College, Cambridge, and Mr. J. M. Battell have examined it, and report that the rate of growth is 1000 cubic feet per annum.

After the Crystal Palace incloses, at this moment, and anticipates a novel and instructive exhibition, and can expect much interest in the picture gallery.

An efficient Orchestra of Music will be in attendance at the Crystal Palace every evening afternoons.
